News Release

RealNet Canada Inc. launches innovative Custom Data Services (CDS) division and adds new features to its corporate web site www.realnet.ca

Toronto, Ontario, Canada – January 20, 2004 – RealNet Canada Inc., Canada's leading real estate information services company, announced today the launch of its innovative and flexible Custom Data Services division and the addition of new public services on its corporate web site (www.realnet.ca) as well as powerful new private services for RealNet clients on its web-based ReallInfo™ service (www.realinfo.ca).

"Custom Data Services (CDS) is a fast and effective way for both ReallInfo™ subscribers with special requirements and non-subscribers to obtain the information they need" explained Steven Hurst P. Eng., vice president of the new division. "CDS is uniquely positioned to assist both large and small organizations with their real estate information and analysis requirements in both the commercial real estate and new homes markets"

The company also added new features to its corporate web site at www.realnet.ca including a Client Services Centre and the ReallInfo™ Solutions Centre. "The ReallInfo™ Solution centre is the only one of its kind in real estate" stated RealNet Canada's president George Carras "With the ReallInfo™ Solutions Centre, businesses involved in the Canadian real estate and development markets can interact with an expert database and learn how ReallInfo™ services can be used to dramatically improve traditional real estate decisions and create new opportunities for their business"

The ReallInfo™ Solutions Centre has also been integrated with the new ReallInfo™ Training Centre available to RealNet clients only on the www.realinfo.ca web site. "We are just as committed to delivering the best client service as we are in delivering the best information service" added Carras. "Today, ReallInfo™ clients are more capable than ever in maximizing the power of ReallInfo™ in their business through interactive learning and self-paced training"

These actions are part of a series of new initiatives by RealNet Canada Inc.
